

CAMILLA HALL ADVISORY BOARD

MEMBER FACT SHEET

Sr. Dorothy Apprich, SSJ

CURRENT POSITION:

I am the Executive Director of Saint Joseph Villa in Flourtown, PA. The Villa, a sponsored work of the Sisters of St. Joseph, is a 106-bed skilled nursing facility open to all persons in need of skilled care or short term rehabilitation as well as the retirement home for the Sisters of St. Joseph of Philadelphia.

CAMILLA/IHM CONNECTION:

Growing up in Philadelphia, I had the opportunity to attend an Archdiocesan High School in which all the various communities of women religious taught. It was here that I first met the IHM Sisters. However, I came to know the Sisters best in my years in congregational ministry as spiritual director and retreat director as well as in ministry in congregational leadership on our General Council. Our two congregations have such similar histories and, although different, we are truly sisters to each other.

CAMILLA HALL ADVISORY BOARD

MEMBER FACT SHEET

HOBBIES & INTERESTS:

Cooking, walking, reading, and visiting the Jersey Shore are my favorite past times.

FAMILY:

I have two sisters, 4 nieces and 1 nephew, and numerous grandnieces and nephews. I live in a local community with 4 other Sisters of St. Joseph.

FAVORITE VACATION SPOTS:

Saint Mary by the Sea, Cape May Point, NJ

FUN FACT(S) ABOUT YOURSELF:

I am blessed with a rich diversity of ministries over the years: educator, administrator, spiritual director, retreat director, congregational leadership, chaplain, hospital administrator, and nursing home administrator. I loved each one of them.